II. DISPUTED CONSTRUCTIONS

Exhibit A is a side-by-side comparison of the parties' proposed constructions of the terms, phrases, and clauses that are still in dispute.

Exhibit B sets forth Soverain's proposed constructions of the disputed claim terms, phrases, or clauses, together with an identification of references from the specifications or prosecution histories supporting those constructions, and an identification of any extrinsic evidence known to Soverain on which it intends to rely either to support its proposed constructions or to oppose the constructions proposed by the defendants.

Exhibit C sets forth the defendants' proposed constructions of the disputed claim terms, phrases, or clauses, together with an identification of references from the specifications or prosecution histories supporting those constructions, and an identification of any extrinsic evidence known to the defendants on which they intend to rely either to support their proposed constructions or to oppose the constructions proposed by Soverain.

Exhibit D sets forth Systemax and TigerDirect's proposed construction of the term "shopping cart computer," together with an identification of references from the specifications or prosecution histories supporting that construction, and an identification of any extrinsic evidence known to Systemax and TigerDirect on which they intend to rely either to support their proposed construction or to oppose the construction for "shopping cart computer" proposed by Soverain.

Exhibit E sets forth terms which defendants Newegg Inc., Systemax Inc, and TigerDirect, Inc. adopted from the Amazon Markman Order, Civil Action 6:04-cv-14, and for which one or more of these defendants expressly preserved the right of appeal. Specifically, Exhibit E contains an identification of the record, upon which an appeal from the adopted claim constructions is to be based.

III. LENGTH OF TIME NEEDED FOR CLAIM-CONSTRUCTION HEARING

The parties suggest that approximately four hours be set aside for the claim-construction hearing.

IV. WITNESSES

No party will call any witnesses at the claim-construction hearing.

V. NO ISSUES FOR A PREHEARING CONFERENCE

At this time, the parties do not believe there are any issues to be taken up at a Prehearing Conference.
